The National Association of Elementary School Principals is committed to serving the unique needs of elementary and middle level principals.

The National Association of Elementary School Principals, founded in 1921, is the oldest and largest national organization dedicated to serving the unique needs of pre-K-8 principals.

Leading

PROFESSIONAL Vision

NAESP is the only principal-led, member-driven, business-focused professional association dedicated to serving the unique needs of today's pre-K-8 principals.

NAESP member principals determine our organizational mission and vision, set our association goals, create our national platform, and empower each other to continually grow and learn. Additionally, our national officers, Board of Directors, and committee members are all practicing principals of elementary and middle level schools.

PROFESSIONAL Voice

NAESP promotes excellence in the profession by carrying the voice of pre-K-8 principals to Capitol Hill. NAESP encourages principals to speak boldly on behalf of themselves and their schools and for increasingly effective systems of learning for all children.

NAESP supports principals in using their knowledge, talents, authority, and influence to lead positive change on behalf of the students in their care.

PROFESSIONAL Recognition

NAESP hosts and supports a variety of prestigious national programs to recognize, honor, and celebrate the outstanding accomplishments of elementary and middle level principals and the students they serve.

Learning

PROFESSIONAL Knowledge

NAESP produces a variety of print and electronic publications designed specifically to build the capacity of elementary and middle level principals.

From our award-winning Principal magazine and monthly Communicator newsletter to our special publications such as Leading Learning Communities 2nd Edition, NAESP's print publications are written by, for, and about pre-K-8 principals.

And don't forget our extremely relevant and timely electronic publications, like Before the Bell, Research Round-Up, and Middle Matters, that are delivered directly to each member via e-mail.

PROFESSIONAL Resources

NAESP's online bookstore, the National Principals Resource Center (NPRC), offers quick and easy one-stop shopping for a diverse range of materials important to pre-K-8 principals.

NAESP members not only receive an automatic discount on any NPRC purchases but can also serve on our Editorial Board that reviews and recommends new professional resources to elementary and middle level principal colleagues across the country.

PROFESSIONAL Development

NAESP's Annual Convention and Exhibition is the pre-eminent professional growth opportunity designed specifically for pre-K-8 principals. In addition, NAESP's Summer Institute, webinars, on-line chats, and presentation guides provide excellent, ongoing, principal-specific professional development.

Communities

PROFESSIONAL Protection

NAESP members (Active and Emeritus) enjoy outstanding legal benefits, including $1,000,000 in individual professional liability coverage and up to $10,000 in legal defense funds.

PROFESSIONAL Support

NAESP is dedicated to ensuring that pre-K-8 principals have the knowledge and tools necessary to be effective school leaders now and into the future.

NAESP provides support to both individual members and our state affiliates through such innovative opportunities as corporate grants, free resources through corporate and associate partnerships, the Principals' Help Line, and the NAESP Speakers' Bureau, providing financial assistance necessary to bring outstanding presenters to state-level principals' conferences.

PROFESSIONAL Networks

NAESP understands the unique needs of elementary and middle level schools, the principals who lead them, and the students they serve. By offering a variety of avenues for pre-K-8 principals to work with each other—from our Convention to our blogs, from our webinars to our publications, from our national committees to our online communities of practice—NAESP facilitates inspirational connections and professional growth between and among principals.
