SIIA Content Division Announces New and Returning Board Members for 2009-10

Seasoned Executives from the Digital Content Industry Join SIIA Content Division Board

Washington, DC – March 13, 2009 -- The Software & Information Industry Association (SIIA), the principal trade association for the software and digital content industry, announced the new members of its Content Division Board of Directors today. Ten executives representing Content Division member companies have been elected to two-year terms.

The SIIA Content Division Board consists of representatives from member companies who are elected by the membership. Board members prioritize Content Division initiatives for the year and determine the projects, activities and events to be undertaken.

According to Ed Keating, Vice President for the SIIA Content Division, "The new composition of Content Division Board members represents one of the strongest and most savvy groups I have worked with during my SIIA tenure. It's a great pleasure to be able to work with such an expert and talented board."

The newly elected – and re-elected – board members serving two-year terms (2009 and 2010) are:
