

About the Board

The SIIA Content Division Board is comprised of executives from SIIA member companies who help provide the digital content industry with leadership, advocacy and market insight in the crucial months and years ahead.