

Market Data Training Courses are workshops for Market Data professionals that are facilitated by FISD. They are for newcomers & industry veterans. If you are interested in hosting a training course in-house or would like to have a course organized locally, please contact David Anderson

For details of third party training courses supporting the FISD Professional Certification Program please click here