

This Month in Ed Tech History

January 1, 1980 - Brøderbund Software was founded in Eugene, Oregon, by Doug Carlston and Gary Carlston. The company was an American maker of computer games, educational software and The Print Shop productivity tools and best known as the original creator and publisher of the popular Carmen Sandiego games. The company moved to San Rafael, California, and later to Novato, California, and was purchased by The Learning Company in 1998.

Tell us what you remember.....

Read more >>