Overview

InfoCommerce Group will take you “under the hood” of who’s doing it right, in this review of the 2013 of the Models of Excellence. Covering a broad range of industries as well as business, content and distribution models, you’ll see what makes these products special, how they are innovating, and what best practices and new approaches can be applied to your own products. This year’s honorees include: Entelo, Equilar Atlas, Relationship Science, RepairPal, Segmint and StellaService.
