

Featuring 2012 SIIA CODiE Awards Winners

How can you be sure you're on the path to success? View the videos below to hear from winners of our 2012 SIIA CODiE Awards, who have been asked to address the top three things to which they attribute their product's success. (In case you don't already know, the annual SIIA CODiE Awards celebrate excellence in business software, digital content, and education technology.)

Maybe you'll learn something that can help your product or company achieve even greater success. We've categorized these videos by CODiE Awards category and company product name so you can quickly find the videos of most interest for you.
